

Alumni Achievement Awards are presented each year to Augustana alumni who have made outstanding contributions to their fields of endeavor, their communities, and/or their churches. The recipients must be graduates of Augustana University who excel in their careers, and exemplify one of the values of the University: Christian Faith, Liberal Arts, Excellence, Community and Service. Normally, three or four alumni will be selected each year for this award.

The Horizon Award is given to recognize young alumni who have quickly demonstrated outstanding vocational achievement, and have provided faithful service to their community and/or church. The recipients must have graduated from Augustana within the last 15 years, excel in their careers, and exemplify one of the values of the University: Christian Faith, Liberal Arts, Excellence, Community and Service. Normally, one person will be selected to receive this award.

More information about Augustana's shared core values can be found at augie.edu/mission.

Nominations will be received by the Award Committee up until April 1st of each year, with the awards being presented the following fall during Viking Days weekend.
